FRANKLIN, VA., May 9.—In the prettlest game played on the Academy diamond this year, Norfolk High School defeated Franklin Military Academy by the score of 2 to 1. At no stage of the game could it be told who would win. The fielding of both sides would do credit to any team. Gillette, of Franklin, made a pretty catch of a foul fly, thus retiring the side. Norfolk had the bases full at one time, and Eyerett fanned out the next three men in succession. There were no home runs. One error for Franklin.

Standing of Clubs.

Everything was coming our way when Mr. Wingard saw the sun sink behind the western horizon and into his mind there jumped an idea that all would be well if the game was tied. Off went his mask and breast protector and out of the demond he walked.

Up jumped Charlie Shaffer with a great big righteous holler, but hollering with a home umpire don't win the money. But after all it was Laval, the Southpaw from Lynchburg, who was signed by Manager Shaffer that lost the game.

When a pitcher allows eleven men to receive complimentary tickets to the first station it was a safe bot that some of the eleven will ride the rest of the way on freight trains.

the mighty. Charlie left the bench with the words sticking out of his mouth. "It's about time, boys," and he didn't do a thing, but hing one for three sacks.

Anthony, Hicks and Sharp were of necessity forced to place their small feet on the rubber. Hamilton bristled one to Blerman, the best in the league, and Bierman, the finest, let it get through him. Then Cowan, the "Sharkey" of Richmond, simply put his weight against the bat, and the ball did the rest. Hamilton stuck his spike in that same rub-and then landed. The ball salled beautifully over the left field fence. Collina just it seed around, but when he got to the second station he forgot there was a sack there. After he had reached home plate, Mr. Wingard said that he was out if he didn't touch this sack. The ball was brought into the diamond, was thrown the pitcher, and Laval got in his box and threw it to Hicks at second. The until the pitcher, and Laval got in his box and threw it to Hicks at second. The until the second in the was out. Then there was a holler sure enough. The only thing that Collna can yet is a single, although Manager Benny said he awould protest the game.

Everybody almost made an error is the sixth inning, and the Danville bunch seored three more runs. Laval got wild again and allowed Bierman to walk. Then O'Nell struck one down to short and Cuddy didn't inke care of it. Benny sinacked one to Hicks and that pug-faced good player made an error. Following this, Laval made a bad throw that secred one man, Of course, a two-bagger was the next package handed up.

After Laval had placed two men on bases and the score was 6 to 5 in favor of the Lawmakers, Still was put in the box. He got the first man at first and Wa...ca the other one. Two were out and Cowan slammed the ball down to Hamilton to catch a runner. Hamilton let it get through him, and before Sharp in left-field could possibly gather it up the run that tied the scope had crossed the plate. So it remained until the end of the tenth inning. It was not dark then, but Mr. Wingard perhaps didn't want to make any mistake like he did yesterday so he called the game.

This game, like the one that was not played Monday, will be pulled off in Richmond. There will be two double-headers there this summer, and if Richmond doesn't win them both, I am a bad guesser. Danville has a fast bunch of ball players, but there are no hitters amongst them. Blerman at short, is the

But the rest of the crowd are not swatters in any sense of the word. Richmond has beaten them in hitting every day, and should have taken both games. Sharp playing in left this afternoon was the prettiest I have looked at since (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May 9.— George Washington defeated Virginia today 3 to 2 in a listless contest. The visitors had made such a poor showing against Washington and Lee that they were thought to be easy. The contest was over half gone before Ellison's Pair, James Riddick and that they were thought to be easy. The contest was over half gone before Virginia realized the strength of the Hatchetites, and then it was too late to pull the game out of the fire. Titus, the former Georgetown twirler, was in the box for George Washington, and pitched a heady game. He mixed them up and kept the seven hits well scattered. Two triples off his delivery came after two were out and dld not figure in the run-getting. Moses was effective except in the sixth, when successive singles by Bradley, Weber, Senior and Campbell sent a trio of runs across the plate, which proved enough to win. John Smulski, Winners.

Championship Baseball Game.

This spring the wave of base-ball enthusiasm has swept the earth with more than its usual vigor, the gentle pastime taking in the entire United States and Manchester, sparing neither age, sex nor previous condition, being the leading topic in Pink Alley as in the Westmoreland and Comomneeath Clubs, including all stratured society between the two.

This afternoon at 4 P. M. there will be a live game between the Battle Are Shoemakers and the Hunt Club High Jumpers, on the latter's grounds, in Manchester. This game will decide which is the champion club, as each has won a game.

To all real lovers of movement and life in a game, such as hitting the ball, running, catching, throwing and rooting, this game will be a treat and a real pleasure not to be attained from attendance at a dozen professional pitchers' battles, where "nobody works but the pitcher, and the rest lay around all day."
